GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK

PETER PAN'S SHARE OF THE AD-VANCE IS $12,000.

Keene Colt Again Halled as Champion Three-Year-Old-Bookmakers Have a Hard Day-John W. Gates Makes Some Big Bets and Wins $30,000 at the Bay.

Peter Pan's share of the Advance Stakes was $12,000. The Commando colt, who was beaten last Saturday under rather unfavorable conditions, won back the favor of the public yesterday in royal style. When he came down to the wire in all his majesty the immense crowd broke into cheers, while hundreds of men on the lawn threw their hats and canes in the air. The victory was one of the most popular events in the season, for a majority of those who went to the track to enjoy the holiday backed Peter Pan for as much as they could afford. But in addition to the financial gain the crowd enthused over a great young racehorse, considered by many to be the equal of Sysonby and a coming champion. There was no fluke about Peter Tan's success this time. He did not meet Frank Gill, the winner of the Coney Island Jookey Club Stakes last Saturday, but he easily disposed of Salvidere and Montgomery. who cut up the rich stake with Gill and finnished in front of Mr. Keene's colt on that Salvidere, who is not yet at his best, ran a game race, but at no time was he able to get to Peter Pan, who conceded a chunk of weight to him last Saturday. Flip Flap ran a fine race and had Salvidere extended to the limit at the end. Montgomery's performance was a disappointment, for he failed to make his usual stretch run when his rider called on him. The Advance was run for the first time in 1899, when Thomas Cat won. In 1900 Imp was victorious, after which Star Bright, Gold Heels, Africander, Irish Lad, Agile and Flip Flap were successful. Dr. Gardner would that just after taking a short gallop in the morning he got away from his exercise boy and ran for two miles before he could be stepped. It is doubtful, however, if Dr. Gardner could have accomplished much in the race as it was run if he had started. But later on, when the Bannockburn colt gets into his best condition, it is hoped he can measure strides ith Peter Pan in a weight for age event.

The ring lost thousands of dollars on the day, and particularly on the result of the big to win, while Salvidere was heavily backed straight and place, with Flip Flap widely played three ways, particularly to show. Montgomery, however, proved something of a life saver for some of the books. Nearly all the chalkers "laid" the favorite. "Humming Bird" Tyler was among them, and he grabbed il the Peter Pan money that he could get his nands on. But at that he was one of the very tlay, his success being partially due to a big wager which he cashed on Miss Crawford.

Those who generally get their information in the paddock, where the wise men congregate, were positive in their belief that Fred Burlaw's Chapultepec would win the Spring Stakes. Burlew told his followers that he intended to bet heavily on De Mund's half ther, and that the colt with blinkers would run a vastly improved race. In spite of the and started King James, the paddock players tiid not give the latter serious thought. Chapultepec is in!" they said as they rushed off to the ring to bet on the "sure thing." Chapultepec opened at even money, while king James was quoted at 7 to 5. The public, ot in touch with the paddock sharps, was while others took Chapultepec. But the wise men had it right, for Chapultepec came home on the bit. August Belmont's Raymond, a Hastings colt, was backed from 40 down to 20 in this race, while R L. Thomas 8 W. Burt was lowered from 20 to 15. H P. Whitney's Fancy was well backed for the place. The books broke about even on the result. Previous winners of the Spring Stakes were Tremont, Satisfaction, Aurania, Blackburn, Strathmeath, Victory, Comanche, St. Maxim, Waltzer, Hazlet, Scottish Chief-tain, Firearm, Ethelbert, Mischievous, The Parader, Chilton, Hurst Park, Gallant, Red Friar, Bill Phillips and Ethon.

lockey Ray never rode a harder race in his life than with Hot Shot in the Steeple-chase. Just what the real incen ive was nobody could tell, but from the moment the flag dropped Ray was busy with the Meddler gelding, in strik ng contrast to the way he handled him in his previous race. Hot Shot was backed from 11 to 5 down to 2 to 1. With whip and spur Ray did his best to land the son of Meddler in front of Agent at the wire, but in exerting himself n this manner Ray did not realize that Hot Shot was suffering intense agony in the last half mile. When he pulled up, however, Ray discovered that the gelding was standing on three legs, as he had broken down badly in his right foreleg. It is probable that Hot Shot will never race again. The public bet on Agent heavily, but he went up in the odds from 7 to 5 to 9 to 5 because of the the odds from 7 to 5 to 9 to 5 because of the wise play on Hot Shot and the support that Grandpa received at the last moment. But at that the ring lost big money on the way the horses finished. Previous winners of the Independence Steeplechase were Lion Heart, Trillion, Dr. Catlett (twice), Magic Light, George W. Jenkins, Land of Clover, Norther Cartelian and Norvalle.

Forhunter, Castalian and Kernel.

The plunge on Grimaldi in the first race was one of the spectacular incidents of the day. When the books opened the Keene colt at 7 to 2 there was almost a riot on the part of the public to get aboard. Bets of all sizes were placed on the Keene colt, who was sent to the post favorite at 13 to 5. Zal, too, was backed all over the ring, both ways, his price remaining steady at 4. Crackenthorpe got a solid play at 5, and Ben Ban at 6. It was not until the last moment that Frank Farrell and his friends decided to bet on Chantilly. and then they got as good as 5 to 1 for their money the bulk of their wagers being to show. Chantilly was well played by others, however, so that the ring was lucky to break

A cog in the machinery slipped when Jacquin failed to get any part of the money in the fifth race. The wise money went on him in chunks, so that he was backed from 8 to 5 down to 6 to 5, while Ostrich went back from 8 to 5 to 2. Miss Crawford receded from 11 to some fast work at Belmont Park, was reduced from 100 to 30. She was ridden by Bryant, a colored stable boy, who succeeded in shut-ting off the favorite, even if he accomplished nothing else. With a good rider in the saddle Gatebell could not have been worse than second, but as it was she was nosed out of third money. The result of this race was of some benefit to the books, in spite of a generous play on the winner.

When Boots Durnell's Saylor won the last race, with Ed Ball in the place, the books got a final knockdown, as these horses finished as they were backed. It was said in the ring that John W. Gates wagered $30,000 on Saylor at 4 to 5, while the play on Ed Ball for the place was tremendous. Mr. Gates, after betting on all the races, quit about $30,000 ahead of the day's proceedings. He won $18,000 on Chanfully in the first race. Then he lost $5,000 on Hot Shot in the jumping event. His wager on Chapultepec was $20,000 at least. Montgomery looked good to the millionaire plunger and he put a pike bet of $5,000 on the son of Pessara in the Advance Stakes. Mr. Gates was informed that Joaquin could not lose, so he dropped $20,000 on Bob Tucker's plater. But his plunge on Saylor put him ahead to the tune of $30,000 or thereabouts. Mr. Gates is hetting so heavily just now that the book-So far he has beaten the game, but the layers think that in the course of time they will be able to put several crimps in the Gates bank-

During the turmoil in the big ring just after Peer Pan's victory a bookmaker in the back in e went "overboard" for $600. The amount him, and his sponsor informed John G. Cavanagh that he would make good to-day.

According to the Pinkertons more than 47,000 persons passed through the turnstiles at the track yesterday. Three hundred bookmakers had all they could do to attend to the speculation.

The league championship game between the Manhattans and the Bensonhurst Thistles, played at Prospect Park, ended in favor of the Manhattans by a margin of 49 runs on the first innings, although nearly a two innings game was completed. The totals: Manhattan, 111 and 103; Bensonhurst Thistles, 62 and 26 for 3 wickets.

Another game in the League series was played at Prospect Park, the Bensonhurst Thistles B eleven being pitted against the Manhattan second eleven, and losing to them by 10 wickets in a two innings contest. The totals were Bensonhurst Thistles B, 72 and 49; Manhattan II., 112 and 57 for 1 wicket.

The New York West Indians beat the Boston West Indians handily at Prospect Park by a margin of 89 runs, the totals being 133 and 44. On the New York side C. Armstrong, H. S. Alexander and J. Harney were each responsible for a score of over 20, and S. Alleyne and F. Pereira did the best work with the ball, the latter's record being 3 wickets for 4 runs.

The Jamaicans played the World team at Prospect Park and scored a victory by totals of 83 to 48.

PETER PAN WINS THE ADVANCE

KEENE'S CHAMPION BEATS SALVI-DERE BY THREE LENGTHS.

Nearly 50,000 Persons See the Big Race -Chapultepee Romps Home With Spring Stakes-Agent's 'Chase-Chantilly, Miss Crawford and Saylor Score.

Nearly 50,000 persons, the largest crowd that ever attended the races at Sheepshead Bay, saw James R. Keene's Peter Pan, 3 to 2 avorite, win the Advance Stakes, weight for age, one mile and three furlongs, in mag-nificent style yesterday afternoon. There were seven starters, and four of them were tremendously played. Peter Pan opened at 7 to 5, but went up slightly in the betting, as T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Salvidere was reduced from 4 to 7 to 2. Emil Herz's Montgomery and J. A. Bennett's Flip Flap were also solidly backed at 5 to 1, but Tokalon, Running Water and Buttling were passed up in the calcula-tions. Notter rode Peter Pan, and as soon as the barrier was released he took the Comando colt to the front to make the pace. Coming down past the judges' stand for the first time, Peter Pan led by a length, with Tokalon and Salvidere following neck and neck and Flip Flap a length and a helf back. Around into the backstretch Peter Pan rushed, his jockey having a tight hold on the bridle. At that point Tokalon dropped back and Salvidere, who was well extended by E. Dugan, went after the Keene champion in earnest. Flip Flap moved up into third place and was running so easily that befor the middle of the backstretch was reached it was thought that she would surely have a part of the money. Notter took Peter Pan up just before he reached the far turn, and as Salvidere drew nearer to him the crowd thought that the latter might win. But a moment later Peter Pan drew away and opened up a gap of three lengths. So after that it was just a gallop for the Commando colt, who breezed to the wire three lengths in front of Salvidere, who stood a terrific drive to keep the place from Flip Flap by a head. The latter finished two lengths in front of Montgomery, who ran far below his best form. The others were badly beaten, Buttling never having a chance, as he was left at the sorm. The others were badly beaten, Buttling never having a chance, as he was jeft at the post.

The race was not run in fast time, as Peter Pan covered the distance in 2:20, the best record for the track being 2:17 3-5, made by H. B. Duryea's Irish Lad when he won this event in 1804. But Peter Pan was not extended at any stage and was so much the best that the experts were ready to attribute his defeat in the Coney Island Jockey Club Stakes last Saturday to the weight and the condition of the track.

Fred Burlew's Chapultipec, running in blinkers for the first time, was a heavily backed favorite at 6 to 5 in the Spring Stakes, for two-year-olds, six furlongs, Futurity course, while John E. Madden's King James was also in demand at 7 to 5. But when it came to a showdown there was nothing to it but Chapultepec, who left the post with whirlwind speed and rushed past the judges four lengths in front of H. P. Whitney's Fancy, 8 to 1. The latter had two and a haif lengths over King James, with the others beaten off. The time was 1:31-5.

Bartlett McLennan's Agent, 9 to 5 favorite, won the Independence Steeplechase over the full course, about two and a haif miles. W. C. Hayee's Grandpa, 14 to 5, had a good lead and was going easily when he stumbled at a jump in the backstretch and lost many lengths. This mishap doubtless cost him the race, for Agent and T. Hitchcock, Jr.'s, Hot Shot, 2 to 1, passed him. Hot Shot was hard ridden by Roy all through the race, but Agent drew away on the flat and beat him in a gallop by eight lengths in 5:13. Hot Shot was two lengths in front of Grandpa.

James R. Keene's Grimaldi, backed from 7 to 2 to 13 to 5 favorite in the highweight handicap, six furlongs, main track, after leading for nearly half a mile, quit like a yellow dog. It looked like Zal, 4 to 1, on the far turn, but the colt ran out as he turned into the homestretch. Then Jack Martin went to work with Frank D. Weir's Chantilly, 9 to 2, who had taken the overland route, and the California colt ran over Ben Ban, 6 to 1, and

**NEW WEIGHT RECORDS.**

John Flanagan and Con Waish Score With Hammer and Fifty-six.

John Flanagan was the bero of the day at the games of the Irish Counties Athletic Union held at the Polo Grounds. He threw the hammer under Old World rules, that is, from a nine foot circle, and his throw taped and bests the mark of 165 feet by T. R. Nicholson of the Kyle A. C. of Scotland. However, there is a technical point with regard to the throw, for Nicholson used a straight handle while Flanagan threw with the bifurcated loops. Flanagan won the English championship in 1900 with a throw of 163 feet 4 inches, and he used a straight handle then.

Con Walsh made a new record in throwing the 56 pound weight for height, doing 15 feet 3 inches. American rules prevailed: a basrel head was used instead of over the bar.

YACHTS RACE IN LIGHT WIND. Lipton Cup Boat Bensonhurst Does Best

Work in Brooklyn Regatta. Twenty-eight racing yachts, the largest fleet that has gathered so far this year on Gravesend Bay, sailed in the fiftleth annual regatta of the Brooklyn Yacht Club yesterday. Although the start was made at 11 o'clock in the morning, so light was the wind that it was after 7 o'clock when the last yacht was timed. The boats all went over outside course

The big sloops and schooners sailed around Scotland lightship. The voyage was 26 Scotland lightship. The voyage was 26 miles, and Vice-Commodore Towen's Tammany won the schooner class. Maydic, which belongs to Commodore W. C. Childs, Bensonhurst Yacht Club, took first prize among the sloops. In this division Col. David E. Austen's Ondawa carried away her topmast and did not finish.

E. F. Luckenback's Sue won in the 27 foot division, and in the Q class R. A. Brown's Vingt-trois scored her first victory. The new 22 footer defeated Soya by more than eleven miuntes over a fifteen mile course.

B. Alyea's Truant won the Q special division, and in the S class Bensonhurst was the first yacht home. The Lipton cup racer did the best work of the day. On corrected time she defeated Vingt-trois over the same fifteen mile course and boat for boat defeated the other 22 footers.

Three new racing dories made their debut yesterday. All of them, however, were defeated by C. Atkinson's Deuce. The regatta committee was Dr. DeMund and W. H. Griffin. The summary:

QUICK FINISH FOR SQUIRES. Australian Wonder Knocked Out by Tommy

Burns in 2 Minutes 8 Seconds.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 4. - The forty-five round fight for the heavyweight champion-ship of America at Colma this afternoon between Tommy Burns of Canada and Bill Squires of Australia lasted only 2 minutes tralian with ease and the fight was over before the fans had fairly settled back in their seats. Squires, who had been touted as a terrible fighter, showed no form whatever. Burns showed great improvement, but he did not have to exert himself, as after the first wallop on the jaw, which floored the Australian, he had Squires at his mercy.

There was a great crowd and the gate money was estimated at $25,000. The betting veered to 10 to 8 with Squires the favorite, and many thousands at those odds were wagered on the battle. The heavy weights entered the ring at battle. The heavyweights entered the ring at 2 o'clock.

Squires showed very poor style as he crouched, thus losing his advantage of height. He rushed at Burns and landed a heavy right on Burns's neck, but when he backed away he exposed himself for a moment and Burns with a quick left hook on the jaw dropped the big Australian to the carpet. The crowd was so surprised that an audible gasp went up from all around the ring.

Instead of taking the count as he should have done Squires jumped to his feet with blood in his eye. He rushed like a bull toward Burns and tried a right swing which came dangerously near Tommy's jaw. Burns ducked and clinched and when they worked out of this Squires tried some very rough wrestling tactics and was cautioned by Refere Jeffries. Squires again rushed and landed his right on Tommy's shoulder.

Burns again clinched and when they were free Squires tried another rush. It proved disastrous, as he came in with arms opened wide, and Burns evading his rush caught him with clean right and left swings fair on the jaw, sending him to the carpet, and Squires fell squarely on his back.

At the count of six he lifted his head, but he was so completely dazed that he had no command over himself. His seconds carried him to his corner, where it was five minutes before he was able to know how it happened.

DR. WELLS MEMORIAL CUP WON BY J. RAYMOND BOYCE.

Fuller and Dean Tie in Apawamis Club Handleap-Wilson Tops a Large Field at Montelair-St. Andrews Players Gather on Old Course at Chauncey

Independence Day had a proper celebration at the Englewood Golf Club yesterday, no less than five competitions being decided on the links and a fireworks fest following the dinner at night. The club championship the dinner at night. The club championship final, at thirty-six holes, had as contestants a former holder of the title. Oswald Kirkby, and E. Mortimer Barnes, who with Louis A. Hamilton will play for Englewood in the amateur championship. The final for the consolation cup for those who did not qualify for the championship also reached the final thirty-six hole match. It was between F. P. Duryea and C. S. Kellogg. An eighteen hole handicap in the morning made the eight lowest set scores qualifiers for a club medal and est net scores qualifiers for a club medal and those whose rating was not over 10 strokes played for the Dr. John A. Wells memorial during its earlier years, and the trophy has been played for as a perpetual challenge cup annually since his death. The winner each year has his name engraved on the cup and receives a small copy of the trophy. J. Ray-mond Boyce gained the distinction this time

Mrs. L. W. Callan won the handicap for the Donald Mackay cup, and the prize for approaching and putting went to Mrs. F. S. Lefferts. Oswald Kirkby struck a great olip with Barnes, doing the first eighteen holes in 78 and taking a pronounced lead for the championship, which he won by 5 up and 4 to play. Kellogg beat Duryea for the consolation prize by 2 up.

An eighteen hole medal play handicap was well contested at the St. Andrews Golf Club yesterday. J. W. Eginton won with 80 net and John Reid, Jr., had the best gross of 80. Best scores were:
